THAT WATCH CASE.

The Supposed Thieves Go to Jail.
The continued case of George F. Cole, Jr., and William Jett, who stole B. Osterbird's watch while all three were drunk on the Free Bridge, Thursday night, was examined in the Police Court yesterday morning.
The main features in the case were published in the Times yesterday.
The evidence showed that everybody connected with the affair was drunk. Osterbird said he was so drunk that he could remember nothing except that his hands were tied. There was a fight and his watch was missing. John Walsh stated that he was with Osterbird. He was as drunk as the others. One of the prisoners took the watch. He (witness) demanded the watch and got it back, and put it in Osterbird's pocket. It was again taken and again returned. These exchanges kept up, the last exchange leaving the watch with one of the prisoners.
Officer W. M. Boles of Manchester worked up the case, and found Jett at Mattoaca, near Petersburg, and turned him over to Officer Shields of Richmond. To the officer Jett admitted that he had sold the watch, got $5 cash and a promise of $10 more.
Jett said that Cole took the watch, a cry of murder was raised and they ran off.
Cole got the chain. When arrested at his home he went up stairs and got both chain and a hat which, in the scuffle, had fallen on the ledge and in picking them up had got exchanged.
Cole and Jett were sent on to the grand jury for stealing from the person. Mr. D. M. Palfam of Manchester, counsel for Cole, spoke in favor of granting his client bail, but the Court refused. Both Jett and Cole went to jail.
The watch, which was recovered, and the "swopped" hat were in court.

Police Court.

Among the cases tried in this court yesterday were the following:
James Gibbs and George Robinson were charged with fighting on the public streets. Two other charges were made against Gibbs, one for carrying concealed weapons and one for threatening to shoot Warner Moore. All these cases were continued until Wednesday, November 7th.
Hamilton Johnson and Irene Johnson (both colored) were fined $2.50 each, the man for beating, and the woman for hitting Carrie Minor.
Mary Davis (colored), charged with abusing Dora Perkins, also with being disorderly on the street, created quite a scene. She called the Court a fool name and paid equal attention to every one within sight, reporters not excepted. She went to jail in default of paying a fine of $15 and costs on the two charges and for the failure to give security in the sum of $100 for her good behavior during the next twelve months.
Sally Washington, Fanny Hays and Maggie Turpin (all colored) behaved disorderly on the lobby horses on Broad street, and were assessed each $2.50 and costs.
Some suspicious characters were jailed until after the Exposition ends.
The case of George Phillips, the Republican who stole coal from the Transparent Ice Company, was continued until November 7th, the day after the election.
Sarah Butcher (colored) was fined $5 for being disorderly on the street.

THE NEGROES AND THE RACE ISSUE.

An Appeal to the Color Line.
The Republican negro party are getting desperate. To get the negro in line sure they are appealing to them on the race issue.
The following is a copy of a printed circular in bold type which was circulated by the thousand in Jackson ward yesterday:
"ATTENTION, COLORED PEOPLE.—The Republican party having ever been the friend of your race, we therefore call upon you to cast your vote for Harrison, Morton and Waddill, not only on account of party, but because it is a race issue with you, and every colored man who refuses to vote the Republican ticket on the 6th of November next votes against his race."
Religious Services To Day.
At St. Mark's Church, Clay and First streets, Rev. Dr. Dashiell, the rector, will preach this morning from the text Psalms C, fourth verse, "Enter into His courts with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise." This will be a special service, as it will be the first service in the church since its redecoration and fitting up. It will be an interesting service.
Rev. R. Wells (colored) will preach at Second Baptist Church (colored) on today at 11:15 a.m., and Rev. Dr. George Cooper of the First Baptist Church (white) will preach at 3:30 p.m. Rev. T. H. Braxter will preach at 8 p.m.

If you want to live quite happy and never know regrets, Don't let your stock run down too low in "My Sweetheart" Cigarettes. For nothing in this market into favor has so grown.
The Death Rate
has decreased since the introduction of Dr. David's Cough Syrup. It is the very best cough cure known.

One More Grand Democratic Parade in New York City.

BUSINESS MEN AND ALL CRAFTS REPRESENTED.

General News, Foreign and Domestic.

NEW YORK, November 3.—Hardly had the Republican business men's parade dispersed when the Democrats marshaled their forces for to-night's demonstration. As early as 6 o'clock the business men's clubs and those bearing the names of the various local candidates from all parts of the east and west, from river to river, as far north as Harlem and as far south as the Battery, began marching toward the starting point—Fifth avenue and Washington square. It was originally intended to confine the parade to the business men's clubs only, but the pressure brought to bear upon the committee in charge of the arrangements resulted in admitting every Democratic club to parade, with the understanding that no transparencies, banners or other emblems indicating partisanship for local candidates be carried. The weather was cool and clear and the streets in good condition, the forenoon sun, together with a strong westerly wind, having thoroughly dried them. The showing made by the Republicans in the afternoon prompted their Democratic fellow-citizens to double their efforts to make to-night's parade equally as large and imposing, and no efforts were spared to this end. Every craft, trade and branch of business and all the local political factions were represented and turned out in full force. The streets along the line of march were packed with people anxious to witness the closing demonstration of the campaign in this city.

Important Railway Decision in Iowa.

DES MOINES, IA., November 3.—The most important decision ever made by the Iowa Railroad Commissioners was filed this morning in the case of the complainants of the Davenport, Dubuque and Burlington jobbers. The Commissioners reaffirm their schedule of June 28 in the first, second, third, fourth and fifth classes, and A, B, C, D and E classes, with the addition of the lumber rate in the Burlington case, the Western classification being adopted in lieu of the Illinois classification.

The decision is signed by Commissioners Smith and Campbell, Commissioner Dey refusing to sign on the ground that Mr. Fred Wilde, of Davenport, secretary of the Twin Cities Freight Associations, in a letter dated October 31 threatened him with the opposition of the jobbers unless he signed the decision by Friday, November 2. "In this situation," says Dey in a note to the Press, "I am compelled by my feeling of self-respect to decline, until after the election, to give any expression of my views upon the subject."

The decision causes great rejoicing among the jobbers and manufacturers here, as it puts the Commissioners' schedule in force despite the Brewer and Fairall injunctions.

Colonizing Colored Men in Virginia.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—Senator-elect Barbour said to-day in responding to inquiries about alleged schemes to colonize colored men from Washington and vote them for Republicans in Virginia, that he had received complaints of that nature, several of which involved men holding Federal positions. He laid the matter before the heads of the departments in which the men complained of are employed, and they promised to investigate it. Mr. Barbour gave the names of the Government employees charged with planning to poll illegal votes, but did not care to have the names published as he had not yet learned that they were shown to be guilty.

The Ivy City Races.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—First race—three-fourths of a mile—Wasatch first, Carnot second, Passport third. Time, 1:16.
Second race—one and a quarter miles—Bella B. first, Frank Ward second, Favor third. Time, 2:10.
Third race—three-fourths of a mile—Reporter first, Toma Vaughan second, Wheeler T. third. Time, 1:40.
Fourth race—one mile—Swift first, Judge Murray second, King Crab third. Time, 1:44.
Fifth race—one mile—Lafitte first, Baitwood second, Drake third. Time, 1:44.

The Dominion Taking Part in the Election.

BOSTON, MASS., November 3.—A special from Ottawa to the Herald says: There is considerable excitement in political circles over the announcement in the Citizen, Government organ, this morning, that three members of the Dominion Cabinet, Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice; Sir Adolph Caron, Minister of Militia, and Hon. George Foster, Minister of Finance, left for New York last evening, as alleged, to witness the election. It is reported that assurance has been given that if Harrison is elected a fishery treaty will be arranged.

Earthquake Shock.

NASHVILLE, TENN., November 3.—The severest shock of earthquake in west Tennessee since that of 1811 was experienced in Union City this morning between 3 and 4 o'clock. The motion was from west to east and the shock was preceded by a terrific roaring. Nearly the entire population was aroused.

A STUPID REPUBLICAN EDITOR.

Allows His Zeal to Master His Discretion.
NEW YORK, November 3.—The World has the following special from Los Angeles, Cal.: The newest sensation here about the Marchion letter, is the following telegram from Washington to the Tribune, a Republican daily of this city: "A gentleman connected with the National Committee to-day said that the publication of the Sackville-Murichson correspondence in Los Angeles was premature. A newspaper man received the correspondence in confidence and the intention of the party managers was to publish it from New York to-day. This was the advice of Chairman Quay to the Los Angeles Republicans. The newspaper instincts of the editor got the better of his judgment, however, and the letters were published one week earlier than was intended. The stupidity of the early publication of the letters is obvious. If the stupid break had not been made in Los Angeles and the letter had been first given to the public this week as was intended, the administration could in no way have averted its effect upon the voters of America."

A Republican Conspiracy Discovered.

NEW YORK, November 3.—The Herald has the following dispatch from Memphis, Tenn.: "An alleged conspiracy to arm negroes and cause trouble on election day was detected by the police to-day. About one hundred negroes were found to have recently purchased Winchester with money supposed to be furnished by Eaton, the Republican candidate for Congress. The whites are alert but not uneasy. A conflict would mean a heavy loss to the negroes. Measures have been taken to prevent an outbreak. Mr. Eaton will publish a card to-morrow indignantly repudiating the charge that he aided or encouraged the purchase of arms by negroes."

The Recent "Accident" to the Czar's Train.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 3.—The Official Messenger, in its account of the recent accident to the imperial train, says that, although the Czar's foot and the Czarina's hand were badly injured, they both forgot their own wounds and rendered all possible assistance to those whose injuries were more severe than their own. Nearly every member of the Czar's suite received contusions. The casualties, according to the Messenger, now foot up twenty-one of the attendants killed and thirty-seven seriously injured—one of whom has since died. While investigating the causes which led to the accident, the Czar found a portion of one of the broken sleepers which was in a complete state of decay.

Latest From the Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—Surgeon-General Hamilton has received a telegram from Gainesville, Fla., reporting four new cases, three colored and one white.
Enterprise, Fla., reports two new cases, with the disease under control.
The Camp Perry surgeon reports: Present—Officers, 4; guards, 11; employees, 39; refugees arrived, 2; discharged, 9; remaining, 117; in fever camp, 4.

EXCITEMENT IN STUTTGART.

All Over Two Americans.

NEW YORK, November 3.—A World special from Munich says: "Popular excitement at Stuttgart is all ablaze again over the two Americans, Woodcock and Jackson, who have obtained such a mysterious control over the King. Night before the last Prime Minister Von Mittnacht returned to Stuttgart, and after a conference with his colleagues in the Cabinet sent a messenger to the King, giving him the alternative of the immediate expulsion of the Americans or the resignation of the entire administration. The King was at first frightened, then angry, and finally sent a peremptory refusal to dismiss his American friends. The Ministers thereupon at once resigned."

"Your correspondent arrived at Stuttgart from here yesterday morning, and found the streets and cafes thronged with excited people. The majority of the crowd sided with the Cabinet and heartily cursed the Americans. All the influence which the King could command was brought to bear on the ministers to induce them to take up their portfolios, but they refused to do so unless the Americans were sent away. Meanwhile chaos reigns politically, and the Americans are having things all their own way. When the correspondent went to the telegraph office at Stuttgart to file his copy the chief of the secret police confiscated the dispatch and ordered him to leave the city at once, personally conducting him to the train, followed by a large crowd. The correspondent therefore decided to return here before being able to forward his dispatches."

CABLE FLASHES.

BERLIN, November 3.—The report that Baron Von Schloesser, Prussian Ambassador to the Vatican was to be recalled, is confirmed.

PARIS, November 3.—There has been a terrible explosion in the Campagnac colliery at Aveyron, caused by fire damp. The pit was full of miners at the time. Forty are known to have been killed. Search of various parties have thus far found nineteen bodies.

One of the society events of last week's entertainments was that of the reading and tableaux of Ben Hur at the Academy of Music. The story of Ben Hur needs no introduction to our readers, and to say the scenes from the same were beautiful and realistic, is to say the least. We might write a column praising each participant, but special mention might be made of Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Putney as the beautiful sister and lovely mother of Ben Hur. Misses Rogers and Nelson were models of loveliness in their bewitching costumes. The balance of the cast was ably sustained by the following gentlemen: Messrs. Anderson, Archer, Skelton, Dearborn, Sullivan, Rhodes, Burruss, Mosely and Chamblin. The success of the play was due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. A. C. Becker and Mrs. Alexander Archer and others.

Governor Fitzhugh Lee is expected to be present. It is earnestly desired that the voters of Marshall ward will turn out in full. A good time is assured to those who will attend.
Mr. Robert Tyler Jones of Washington was in the city yesterday.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

NEW YORK, November 3.—A Herald special from Charleston, West Virginia, says, that Ellison Mounts, one of the leaders of the Bloody Hatfield gang of murderers has been captured and is now in jail at Pikeville, Ky.

JACKSON, MINN., November 3.—A courier arrived here yesterday with the news that on Thursday afternoon a prairie fire swept over Sioux Valley township, Jackson county, and destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property and five lives.

NEW YORK, November 3.—The original Dudley letter was inspected by all the Democratic National Committee to-day. Afterwards they conferred in Colonel Brice's room and it was unanimously decided to prosecute Dudley.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 3.—Rev. Jasper S. Hughes, the prohibition nominee for Governor, has filed a $10,000 libel suit against the Indianapolis Journal for publishing a story that he said that he would see the Republicans rot in hell before he would vote the Republican ticket.

BOSTON, November 3.—Henry S. Dewey the assignee in the case of William D. Forbes, late president of the National Bank of Redemption, says that the liabilities can be approximately placed at $200,000 and the assets at from $60,000 to $67,000, the latter consisting largely of real estate in Foxbury.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., November 3.—Dr. Frank L. Wyman, of Olneyville, was awarded damages in the sum of $17,000 from the Union Horse Railroad Company by a verdict of the Supreme Court jury to-day for injuries received by being thrown from the platform of a horse-car which, was alleged, was driven at an extraordinary rate of speed, and in rounding a switch hurled the Doctor off. The amount of damages was not specified in the Doctor's claim.

If There is Anything Better for coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc., than Dr. David's Cough Syrup, we have never heard of it. It cures and leaves no bad after effects.

THE MAIN ISSUE.

Civilization the Question for the Southern People to Consider.

JUDGE STAPLES ON THE ISSUES OF THE DAY.

Rally of the Clay Ward Clubs.

Hurrah and red fire announced the arrival of the clubs of Clay ward at Old Pine-street Church last night to hear Judge Walter R. Staples discuss the issues before the people.

Mr. Cates called the meeting to order, and called Mayor J. Taylor Ellyson to the chair.

A LIBEL ON GENERAL ANDERSON.

The Mayor read a letter from General Joseph H. Anderson repudiating the story giving the words that he was going to vote for Harrison, or had advised any of his employees so to do. He urged in his letter the election of Cleveland, whom he pronounced one of the best representatives of American manhood who ever sat in the Executive chair. The letter also predicted the election of Hon. George D. Wise to Congress. He then introduced who said that he took an interest in Richmond because he was now a resident of the city, and a more orderly city was never seen as Richmond is under Democratic rule. If the city shall be turned over to the negroes and William Mahone it will defeat all the efforts the white men have been making since the war.

The Republicans and negroes have changed their policy. Now no one sees any Republican meetings or speakers. You hear whispers of their work in the dark and of their efforts to put the white people of Richmond under the control of negroes.

Mahone! The fight between him and Wise, Langston, Houston and others is history. Wait until election day, and you will find Mahone and his cohorts at the polls even if John Wise's prediction that the Republican party was going to hell and he to New York was proven a fact.

Take the negro votes away from the voting population and the Democratic party would overwhelm the Republicans in Michigan, New York, Ohio, Illinois and other Northern and Western States where the negro holds the balance of power.

RADICAL CORRUPTION.

While the Republican party was in power a Vice President, a Secretary of the Treasury, a Secretary of War, a President's Secretary, and other high officials, including Senators, were driven from power because of corruption. Nothing of this kind was ever known under a Democratic administration.

A DELUSIVE CRY.

The cry of protection is only to get the Republican party back into power; to get Mahone into power; to get the negro into power. 'Tis the same old man in another suit of clothes. Does Mr. Vanderbilt pay his carriage drivers more than his neighbors? Not a bit of it. Mr. Cleveland, in his message says that he is in favor of protecting American labor, giving them cheap clothes, cheap houses and cheap food. The tariff under the Mills bill is the highest known in this country on the particular objects for which a tariff was called for.

No monarch in Europe could levy a tax on his people which produced a surplus of $100,000,000 per year and keep his crown on his head.

A voice: How about sugar and rice? Judge Staples: The Republicans, in their tariff bill, took the tariff tax off of sugar and rice, because they were the only two articles of produce which the South raised. These bills protected the North but left the South to suffer. Judge Staples' remarks elicited loud applause, and on his conclusion the meeting adjourned.

Amusements This Week.

The Academy will present on Tuesday and Wednesday next McNish, Ramza & Arno's Minstrels. A programme filled with novelties is to be given, and while the organization is a new one, it comprises a number of old favorites. Among them are McNish himself in his ever-popular "Silence and Fun," Lew Benedict with his speeches; the Kryers in their dancing act, while Ramza and Arno have proved their title to the first rank as pantomimists.

The after-piece, "The Invalid's Hotel," is said to be very amusing. Tom Donnelly is the comedian.

The election returns as received will be read from the stage on Tuesday night.

Beginning Thursday and continuing through the week a dramatization of Jules Verne's well-known work, "Around the World in Eighty Days," will be given.

OPERA AT THE THEATRE.

The Lyceum Opera Company, with Jennie Winston as the star, will begin an engagement at the Theatre to-morrow for one week and a Saturday matinee in the following operas: Monday and Tuesday, "Grand Duchess"; Wednesday and Thursday, "Girofle-Girofla"; Friday and Saturday, "Prince Methusalem" with the "Grand Duchess" for the matinee.

Miss Winston has appeared on many occasions in Richmond, and an announcement of her now at the head of an opera company is sufficient to fill the house. There will also be a chorus of twenty voices with an augmented orchestra. Sale of seats begins to-morrow morning.

THE MUSEE.

The Musee Theatre presents an elegant programme to its patrons in the way of a variety show this week. The election returns will be read out from the stage Tuesday night.
